PROJECTS

AJSA Poster

Created a 300 DPI, high-quality poster for the popular web show "The Angry Joe Show". The poster followed a requested theme featuring the two hosts from the show.

Video Game

An in progress cross-platform game with lots of replayability and pleasing simplistic art with an exciting gameplay loop. The artstyle allows the game to perform well on several devices and promotes casual play.

Book Cover

300 DPI book cover for the novel I wrote. This project allowed me to show off my skillful ink work, typography, commitment to finish long projects, and my understanding of shading/coloring.
